1	3/17/2010	Establishment of training programs for station personnel	Program designed to train select production personnel who wish to become program directors, responsibility for the on-air production of a broadcast TV program including supervision of all production personnel and coordination/collaboration with the program producer.	2	Alyson Scofield Senior Producer Tom Schina Director	1.00
2	3/17/2010	Establishment of an intern program designed to assist members of the community	Creative Services Department established an on-going unpaid internship program with spring, summer, fall and winter sessions for college students and high-school seniors, who were eligible to receive scholastic credit for their participation. Interns were able to train in various facets of TV commercial production and editing, including field acquisition, non-linear editing, and digital effects production. Candidates applied for the program through a page on the www.nbc40.net web site. (2 students participated) All participants completed their internships successfully, fulfilling time requirements set by their schools.	3	Willie Munns Creative Services Mgr. Chris Heitman CS Producer Jesse Heineman CS Producer	1.00
3	3/17/2010	Sponsorship of events in the community designed to increase public awareness	Program is directed by Chief Meteorologist Dan Skeldon, who fields requests from various school groups for classroom appearances by staff meteorologists. Meteorologists use the visits to area schools and institutions to acquaint students with the fascinating field of broadcast meteorology, and its importance to the public, being the one most-often stated reason why viewers watch local news. Visits last an average of an hour and involve audiences ranging from 25 to 50. Meteorologists make between 3 and 6 visits a week during school year and 1 to 2 a week during summer vacation months. Teachers and school administrators request the educational visits by selecting a dedicated button, 'Dan's Weather School,' on the nbc40.net web site weather page.	2	Dan Skeldon Chief Meteorologist Monica Ott Meteorologist	0.50
